DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 6, 8-22, 24-27, 29 and 43-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Graham in view of Smith 6,296,155.

Graham shows a tilt valve (column 4, lines 15-33). Graham lacks first and second inlet apertures. Smith shows first 50 and second 52 inlet apertures so a user can select different flow rates (see abstract). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have modified the Graham tilt valve with first and second inlet apertures as taught by Smith so a user can select different flow rates.

Neither Graham nor Smith disclose what the contained product is. It is well known that cosmetic products are dispensed using aerosols. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have modified the Graham/Smith device with the contained product being a cosmetic because it is well known that aerosols dispense cosmetics.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/26/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 3754

Re claims 51-54 where omitted in office action 8/14/06 but where listed on cover sheet as claims rejected. Claims in question are unpatentable over Graham in view of Smith

Applicant alleges no motivation to combine Graham and Smith. Motivation to combine is stated in the abstract which is so a user can select different flow rates.

In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986). Graham shows a tilt valve. Smith teaches two openings. The Graham/Smith device is a tilt device with two openings in as much as applicant claimed invention.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
